ORDER

The Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge was filed with the Court in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b), (ECF No. 13), and, on January 30, 2023, was served on the parties in this action, (ECF No. 14). Respondent filed objections to the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation. (ECF No. 17.) The Court has appropriately reviewed the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation and has made a de novo determination in accord with the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation.<sup>2</sup> The Court therefore adopts the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation.

<sup>2</sup> Respondent contends that, “when assessing a motion to dismiss a federal habeas petition, the [C]ourt ‘may consider [the record of the state proceeding, including affidavits and evidence presented at trial] without having to convert [a] Rule 12(b)(6) motion to one for summary judgment.’” (ECF No. 17 at 6-7 (quoting Walker v. Kelly, 589 F.3d 127, 139 (4th Cir. 2009)).) Respondent's argument glosses over the fact that Walker held that a district court may consider “material from the record of the state habeas proceeding” and “matters of public record such as documents from prior state court proceedings in conjunction with a Rule 12(b)(6) motion.” Walker, 589 F.3d at 139 (emphasis added). Thus, the Court's ability to consider such materials without converting the motion to one for summary judgment turns on the fact that such materials form part of the

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that (A) that Respondent's Motion to Dismiss, (ECF No. 8), (i) is DENIED to the extent it relies on the defense of non-exhaustion, and (ii) is converted to a motion for summary judgment to the extent it challenges the merits of Petitioner's claim(s), (B) that summary judgment is GRANTED for Respondent as to Petitioner's bribery subclaim, but DENIED as to all of Petitioner's remaining subclaims, and (C) that this matter is set for an evidentiary hearing, with counsel appointed for Petitioner pursuant to Rule 8(c) of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases..
